

Supplementary material

Supplementary figure 1.

Brain MRI scan (axial plan). Gyral DWI restriction is detectable in the left frontal lobe (A), with correspondent drop in ADC values (B), consistent with cytotoxic oedema, likely related to sustained seizure activity. The FLAIR sequence shows extensive gliosis in the left frontal lobe, secondary to the resected meningioma (C).

